

Going Wild!

Things to make or do

- Create your own patterned picture of an exotic fruit bowl, an African landscape etc.
- Find a simple recipe from Africa or India, ask an adult at home to help you make it. Can you write a recipe for your dish?
- Find pictures of jungle animals, cut them out and make a book of them, you could add a caption to each one.
- Write a list of all the wild animals you know, you could use the internet or information books to help you.
- Make a 3d model of a jungle animal, using different materials.
- Make some jungle animals or some telescopes and other things to have an exciting adventure in the jungle role play!

Outdoor Ideas

- Make a den for your garden or outdoor area
- Create a safari hide/look out in your garden
- Go for a family walk in your local area and see what wildlife you can see.
- Grow some fruit plants.

Research Ideas and Books to share

- Can you use the internet to find information facts on jungle animals? Use the contents page to look up and find out about different animals.
- Try and make your own information book. You could number the pages and make a contents page.
- See if you can find jungle stories to listen to on You Tube.
- You could make up your own jungle story; use your phonics to help write your sentences. Can you add pictures to illustrate your story?
- The Selfish Crocodile by Faustib Charles and Michael Terry
- Rumble in the Jungle by Giles Andreae
- Alligator Baby by Robert Munsch
- The Tiger Who Came to Tea by Judith Kerr
- The Cross-with-us-Rhinoceros by John Bush and Paul Geraghty
- The Lion who wanted to Love by Giles Andreae
- Elmer by David Mckee